

once fixed, the larva becomes a spat. After 4 moults, it reaches 2 to 4 cm or 200 times its initial size. Then starts the stripping. The oyster farmer releases the spat from the collector and places it in a half-farm in the park for one to two years. oyster farming.